Salutations!

Hey, folks. Welcome to the latest and the greatest newsletter in English teaching! Of course it's from ITTO.

As graduates of ITTO, we thought you would like to keep informed of what is going on in the world of EFL and ESL. We also thought you might like to keep up with all your classmates. Therefore, inspired by our graduates, we are launching two great ways to keep in touch. First, our newsletter in which we hope to advise you of the news, teaching techniques, jobs available, and other interesting tidbits to keep you abreast of your chosen career path. Secondly, we are simultaneously publishing a blog for your benefit. We hope to hear your stories, comments, and suggestions on the ITTO blog.

Tell us what has been happening to you, and advise us as to what you would like to see, learn, or brush up on. The blog will be updated weekly, so you don't want to miss out. We welcome our readers to give us input, gripes, compliments, and queries. We would love to hear from you.

Getting Ready for the Games

Here, in Guadalajara, Centro Histórico is getting a facelift. In fact, a lot of Guadalajara is getting some much needed attention. The reason is the Pan American Games in 2011. Yes, they are to be held here in the City of Roses and home of Tequila.

The street, Lopez Costilla, for example, is being repaved with concrete. Naturally, they are also building housing for the athletes, as well as improving other areas. If you want to see the Pan American Games, then plan accordingly.
