Salutations!

Greetings and Salutations

Hello Everyone!

Here we are again, and it is summer already in Guadalajara, Mexico. We, too, think of fun places to go for the weekends where we can get some R&R. We hope everyone is fine, health, and busy teaching English somewhere. Of course, we have some news, articles, and resources for you to investigate. So, without further ado, read on.

What's New at ITTO.

If you are not acquainted with ITTO, you will find some information on two observers that are working at ITTO. If you are a graduate, they will be familiar, but you might find out some information about their backgrounds. Plus, we will tell you about the new certificate that ITTO is now offering! Find out at our Blog!

Puerto Vallarta

Jet setters, honeymooners, tourists, and students all know about Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. It is a world famous resort on the Pacific Coast in Mexico. It is a few hours drive from Guadalajara and a favorite vacation spot for both Mexicans and foreigners. Puerto Vallarta "rocks" during spring break when the college students arrive, but it is popular all year long. Real all about it on our Blog.
